

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 20/02/2025

1. Introduction

Indiversum ("we," "our," "us") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect your data when you use our platform located at <https://indiversum.com/> (the "Platform"). By using the Platform, you consent to the collection and use of your data as described in this policy.

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we ensure that your personal data is processed lawfully, transparently, and in a manner that respects your privacy rights.

2. Data Collection

We collect personal information when you register for an account, such as:

- Name
- Email address
- IP address
- Usage data (e.g., activity on the platform)

We may also collect non-personally identifiable information to improve our services. The legal basis for processing your personal data is based on the necessity to perform our contract with you, legitimate interests, and consent where applicable.

3. Data Usage

We use your data to:

- Provide and improve the Services on the Platform.

- Send updates, newsletters, and promotional content, provided we have your consent to do so.
- Respond to your inquiries and requests.
- Comply with legal obligations.

The legal basis for processing your personal data includes a performance of a contract, legal obligations, and your consent when applicable.

4. Data Sharing

We do not sell or rent your personal data to third parties. However, we may share your data with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating the Platform, such as hosting services, analytics tools, or payment processors. These providers are obligated to keep your information confidential and are not permitted to use your data for any other purposes.

In some cases, we may share your data with third parties when required by law or to protect our legal rights.

5. Data Retention

We retain your personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, including to comply with legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. The criteria used to determine retention periods include the nature of the data, the purpose for processing, and the legal requirements.

6. Cookies

We use cookies and similar technologies to enhance user experience and analyse site traffic. Cookies allow us to collect information about your use of the Platform. You can control your cookie settings through your browser, but disabling cookies may impact the functionality of the Platform.

7. Data Security

We implement reasonable and appropriate security measures to protect your personal data from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

8. User Rights

Under the GDPR, you have the following rights regarding your personal data:

- Right to access: You can request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- Right to rectification: You can request corrections to any inaccurate or incomplete data.
- Right to erasure: You can request that we delete your data under certain circumstances.
- Right to restrict processing: You can ask us to limit the processing of your data.
- Right to data portability: You can request a copy of your data in a structured, commonly used format.
- Right to object: You can object to the processing of your data in certain circumstances, such as direct marketing.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at info@indiversum.com. You also have the right to complain to a data protection authority.

9. Changes to the Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page, and the "Last Updated" date will be revised accordingly. We encourage you to review this policy periodically to stay informed about how we are protecting your data.
